II. Some farther Remarks on P. Souciet's Differtations againft Sir Ifaac Newton's Chronology, by Edmund Halley, L.L.D. Aftron. Reg. In a Letter to Dr. Jurin, Coll. Med. & S.R. Soc.

SIR,
WHEN I gave you my Paper of Remarks on P. Souciet's Differtations againft Sir Ifaac Newton's Chronology, I was oblig'd to take what he was pleas'd to give us out of Hipparchus's Comment on Aratus, not having then that Author himfelf by me. Since then, by the favour of a very good Friend, having gotten the Florence Edition of Hipparchus, Anno 1567, I find an Argument very much ad Hominem, which the R. P. muft confeß will bring the Argonautick Expedition full as low as Sir Ifaac Newton makes it.

P. Souciet in his fifth Differtation, Page 119, 120, finds out a Star of the firft Magnitude, clofe adjoyning to that we now call the firft Star of Aries, as it is in the Catalogue of Ptolemy, where it is faid to be in the Horn of Aries, and not in the Ear. This Star the R. P. fupposes long fince to have difappeared ; but that being of old very confiderable, it was from this firft Star of Aries, the Zodiack began, tho'
